

Russ Griebel, PG, CPG
United Consulting
Executive Vice President/Chief Consultant

Russ Griebel is an Executive Vice President and Chief Consultant at United Consulting. Russ has extensive experience acting as a liaison between public & private entities and various States environmental agencies. He is licensed PG in AL, GA, LA, NC, SC, TN, and TX. His role at United Consulting is providing technical leadership and managerial support for projects including; site characterization, remedial actions, risk assessments, vapor intrusion assessment and mitigation, and Brownfield property redevelopment. Through the years, Russ has been active in numerous professional organizations including the Georgia Brownfield Association, the Institute for Brownfield Professionals, the National Brownfield Association, and the Air and Waste Management Association. Russ is a Founding Committee Member and Past President of the Alabama Brownfields Association. Russ received his Bachelors Degree in Geology from Clarion University of Pennsylvania in 1995.